CORAM: B.H. MARLAPALLE, J.

Date : August 1, 2006.

P.C.:

. The learned counsel for the respective parties state that during the pendency of these petitions the parties negotiated and arrived at an amicable settlement of the disputes covered by these petitions.

The settlement terms have been reduced in writing in terms of the consent terms and they have been signed by the respective parties today. The respondent no.3 in Writ Petition No.3296/97 and the petitioner in Writ Petition No.3240/97 is personally present along with the Principal of Smt. Mithibhai Motiram Kundanani College of Commerce and Economics and both of them state that the consent terms have been understood by them and they have signed the same affirming that they settled the disputes.

. The consent terms are taken on record and marked as "X" for identification. The said terms are binding on both the parties as has been agreed by them and, therefore, both these petitions stand withdrawn as per the said consent terms. Rule discharged. Interim order, if any, stands vacated. No costs.
